Incendiarism Suspected, as There Had Been No Fire in Buildings-Light Infantry Celebrates Its Hundred and Tenth Anniversary.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Sept. 15.—
Last night a negro named Will attainor, well known in this community, was found lying on Munford Street, in front of the work shops of the Caroline Machine Company, with an ugly knife wound in the back, which may prove fastal. He was, evidently, very drunk, and find bled copiously, which, together rendered him unable to give any account of his assailant.

GREENSBORO. N. C., Espt. 16.—The intelligence conveyed in Saturday's Times-Dispatch that Miss Atlanta L. Bradfield had been left a fortune by her aint was peculiarly gratifying to her many friends in this county and State. Miss Bradfield's family live at Oak Ridge, this county consisting of a widowed mother, a sister and a brother, and her uncle. Mr. Albert Clark, is one of the most highly esteem, and the county. She was educated at Oak Ridge Institute, graduating in the class-of 189 and was always a favorite in school and neighborhood circles on account of her quick pluck, and gentle, considerate concern for others. Not satisfied with a life of idleness. Miss Bradfield aithough not of robust health, determined to aid her mother. After graduation, she took a business course at Oak Ridge Institute and Secured a position as stemographer in Richmond three years ago. There, with industry and herodyn girl and succeeded in saving enough to purchase a comfortable home for her mother alek Ridge, in sending her sister to college and supporting heresit. The old church at Bethabara or Old Town is being repaired and put in perfect order, and a new slate roof has been provided by the members in token of their interest in this occasiva and of their debt to their illustrious ancestry. The other Moravian churches in various parts of this section of the State are making a special effort along lines of improvement in building, in renewal of interest and in the arousing of the people.

MEN BADLY BURNED BY SULPHURIC ACID

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, N. C. September 15.—
John Bryan and Jim Wilson, both colored, were badly burned by sulphuric acid today, a large drum containing, 100 gallons,
which they were handling, having burst.
The liquid was thrown all over the negroes and also on a small white boy who was standing near by. The acid almost burned the clothes off Bryan and the boy before persons who assisted them could tear the saturated garments from their backs.

Prompt action was all that saved them
from being burned to death by the acid.
The men were loading the drum on a dray when it fell, causing it to burst
The accident caused considerable excitement. The flying liquid cleared the street in a few seconds.

MURDERED ON TRAIN WHILE IT WAS RUNNING

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILMINGTON, N. C., September 15.—
While returning to South Carolina from Wilmington last night on an excursion an unknown negro was stabbed to death and thrown through a window while the train was running. The pegro's body was found near the track this morning at Cerro Gorda, fifty miles from here on the Atlantic Coast Line. Several fights occurred on the train, and it is learned that two or three other negroes were badly cut. The slayer of the dead negro is unknown.

WASHINGTON, VA., Sept. 15.—Among the young members of the coming session of the Legislature of Virginia will be Mr. J. Hunton Wood, of Rappahannook county, who will represent the legislative district confosed of Page and Rappahannook counties.

Mr. Wood was nominated on the 20th day of August, having defeated Colonol R. A. Bickers, of Page county, Mr. Wood is only thirty-four years old and has always been actively identified with the Democratic party. He is the first candidate who has ever polled the full strength of his party as well as of his constituency. He was educated at Culopper, Va. in the Virginia Midland Academy, which school was conducted by Prof. Powell and finishing his education at the Virginia Millary Institute at which inscitution he spont three years, giving up his studies to take charge of his father's farm and to become a partner with his father in the live-stock brokerage business.

The Montpeller Riding Club had a most enjoyable time the 12th, when it was given an outing by Mr. John Terry, in honor of his guest, Miss Stella Kathrino Bass, of Richmond. Several fine horses were in the ride. Among those in the party were Misses Bass, Terry and Jarvis and Messrs. Law and Equity Court in Richmond.

He is a popular favorite personally and socially, and is recognized as standing high in the legal profession, and all his friends feel that he will fill the place left vacant by Judge Minor most acceptably.

Judge William I. Clopton will be named to fill the vacancy in Manchester. This will put Judge Clopton back to his old post of duty. He was the first judge of the Hustings Court of Manchester, and was succeeded by Judge S. Bassett French in readjuster days. The latter gave way to Judge Ingram, who was in his third torm.

The coming back to this bench of Judge Clopton will also be halled with pleasure by his many friends and admirers in Manchester and Chesterfield. His seat on the bench of the County Court of Chesterfield will be vacated by limitation on January 1st by the provisions of the Consiliution, and his acceptance of the judgeship will again bring up the city attorneyship question.

CITY ATTORNEYSHIP.

Judge Clopton was re-elected to that position two weeks ago by the City Council of Manchester, Mr. Charles Page being his only opponent. The friends of Mr. Page will in all probability name him again, when the matter comes up in the Council, and the name of Mr. — L. Pulliam another eminont lawyer of Manchester, will very likely be mentioned.

Mr. Pulliam is superintendent of the public schools, and Mr. Page is Commonwealth's attorney, but the possession of these two offices will in no wise interfere with the holding of that of the city attorney.

An exciting accident occurred here yesterday, when Dr. Thomas Stanley's horses ran away. The two thorough-breds were hitched to a buggy, and while the Doctor was writing a prescription they were frightened and plunged forward at a breakneck speed. The buggy was upset and Dr. Stanley was thrown violently to the ground, but was not seriously hurt. The horses ran down the road half a mile and dashed into a board fence, where they were caught by two young men. One of the horses was bidly hurt and the buggy torn in pleces.

Should Judge Clopton be named this week, and it is probable that such will be the case, as it was stated last night that the Governor had signified his intention of appointing him, the City Council will be called in special session at once to mame his successor.
